Introduction

I'd want to thank the reader for stopping by. This is a work resulting from three years of persecution (2005-current) that goes all the way to the top the United States government. I feel this culture has become very dangerous to the world and I feel responsible to say something. My intention is to make this a better and more trusting world to live in.

If I have one request, it would be that I ask the reader read up until the "Calling Section" so as to be able to defend themselves.

Any comments or suggestion please let me know of, and anonymity will be protected.

What is Searchlight?

Simply put, Searchlight is a culture that forces sexual rotation.

The effect of frequent sexual rotation is the release of an abnormally excessive amount of natural pain killers and stimulants called endorphins. Its effects are far greater than any drug ever known.

Someone discovered around the turn of the 19th century that frequent rotation (as little as three different people in 24 hours) can create this massive high. This discovery was in a town called Searchlight, Nevada and it where this culture got it's name. Since it has become discovered it has evolved from the most secret culture to becoming a dominating world culture.

How Come I Have Never Heard of It?

Searchlight is a culture that enjoys so much what they do that no law, no common morality is bound to it. Searchlight now days uses an advanced code to hide its intentions, uses terrorism and technology to frighten non-conformers, is very involved with drugs, poisons, slander, threats, and torture. No part of Searchlight is ever written and no rule is ever directly told.

The Code - How Does it Work?

Searchlight is based on a class system. Basically there are three classes - a handler, a student and a not participating class. The last class Searchlighters don't really feel is an option and is often ridiculed.

Classes are static and fixed. A person picks a base class on initiation so classes reflect personality but also during rotation classes change.

The code/classes are based on numbers:

- 2 - No state. Means no.
- 3 - Yes state. Means, "send me someone."
- 4 - Female Class - Follows the eight's lead.
- 5 - Male Class - Follows a nine's lead.
- 6 - Male Class - Follows a nine - also, a man who is looking.
- 7 - Male and Female - not participating in the sexual rotation.
- 8 - Male Class - A handler. A male after sex.
- 9 - Female Class - A handler. A female after sex.
- 10 - Female Class - A female to be set up with sex.

Into Regular English

Of course the code isn't spoken as numbers but as regular language. The number is converted to letters. For example "Because" would signal 2 - the second letter in the alphabet. Letters are wrapped (2,12,22) so "Letters" would also signal 2 - the twelfth letter in the alphabet.

Zero and one have no meaning numerically only alphabetically - Zero being six and One being 5.

Class Bump - Friendly

The most common method to get sex in Searchlight is to bump the person whom one has sexual interest in from their class. Searchlight starts with an initiation phase where people are freely sent to the initiate during which the addiction sets in. After the addiction sets in and bumping classes is learned quickly to go after a new high.

Six's and ten's are classes in the sexual rotation that are ready for sex, eight's and nine's are handlers. Seven's aren't part of the rotation and four and five's are protected classes.

One of the things that will get noticed pretty quickly is that doubles are very common in Searchlight culture, it's their bravado. "Playing pool", "stop smoking", "fun fishing", "Gotta go" are a few examples. Searchlighters can't wait to get around the chain to get their next fix.

Class Bump - Throwing Others from Their Perch

A second and can be a very very cruel bump is to tear someone else from their class. If this is done, the person's handler must provide a sexual prospect to the person the bumped him.

To bump a class an 8 can take a 5's class away, for example, by saying, "that's Really Obvious." More commonly it's done with the "Verb Object" in the sentence structure: "It's Good you're Here.

All classes work this way (user class ousts recipient class) except for 8 regarding 6. Because this defines the class swap for sex its reversed. So when you hear 86 - it means a six can oust an eight - or in other words the six would get his girl.

Also the 4 class is reversed. For example a 5 would have to say, "Theirs something uNderneath your Eye" to bump a four class.

This is obvious though and many people will not show their class. Classes can be bumped by using doubles: 66, 99... or by using 3 or 2. Males put 3 or 2 before a male class: 26, 37... to oust it and after a female class: 92, 10 2... Females do the opposite: 82, 29...

Bumping Handlers

Everyone has a handler or is a handler(an eight or a nine) that they are responsible to. They are required to do the what the handler says in almost all instances.

Bumping a handler can be pretty serious event and generally only happens on instruction from someone higher up.

Handlers work in couples - the eight and nine. To bump one's handlers they are referred to in the opposite sex. To oust my female handler I could use 99 but to oust the male when he is handler I would use the female's present class which would be a four.

When a male bumps a male handler he could use 88 doing this puts the person into a female class - a nine. A female can also say "Double Digits", for example to do the same to a female.

Approval

Classes cannot be ousted without another Searchlighters approval in most instances. They must also be sealed by 23 or 33(for males) or 32 or 22(for females). An example conversation:

Bumper: "Yes, I was Playing Pool on my computer."

Bumpee: "You were doing what?"

Bumper: "Pool is fun, you know. But I was playing, Bad on the Computer."

Approver: "Crazy!"

Generally the rule is that these have to be said more than once and made somewhat obvious, but not always. The approver(which can be anyone) must give a thumbs up or thumbs down here. It's completely subjective. 3 is given for yes, 2 for no.

Sex Specific Code

Some code can be considered gender specific and should be avoided or corrected. 89 and 32 are masculine and 98 and 23 are feminine.

States

Three and two are not only affirmations but can be used to represent states too. Two means no, "I'm not interesting in sexual rotation" and three means, "Yes, please send me someone". Searchlighters will adhere to the code though often see twos as wrong and three's as right and people that don't wish to participate are often put a lot of pressure on. If one was to infer that the person who has the most sex encounters is the most right than that would perfectly echo a Searchlight sentiment.

Rotation Without Sex

People that have learned to live with Searchlight and not participate in the sexual rotation have managed to survive by bumping classes just through talk. Also the handler usually has to put out one order a day.

Hand Signals and Colors

Hand signals are used to signal classes or messages. Touching the Chin can show interest. A guy signaling uNder the Eye means he's releasing his the 4 to another . Hands in the pockets can convey the a guy is looking for sex. And the big one, the one the every one must look out for is Crossing the Arms. This means that an act of sex is occurring and to not go near.

The most used signal 2 (Lips, Bridge of nose, throat, back of the head) should be used sparingly. Signaling two all the time can and will be interpreted that one would like to get rid of the handler.

The colors the person wears are often used in Searchlight to convey class or even desire. Black can show non-interest while pink can mean a lady is ready.

Initiation

The initiation phase begins when a person has had sex with a Searchlighter. It is the cruelest piece of human history I have ever seen or would think that ever exists. Initiation is based entirely on isolation and abstraction. In other words, initiatees are made to feel alone and unsure. The initiatee is told to be attacked on site. During the phase, the initiatee may lose laws that protect him or her.

During initiation a Searchlighter mindset is that there is no more important thing than an initiatee should be doing than to be learning Searchlight. During this time, secrets of Searchlight will be directly told to the initiatee in a direct but abstract way. This is similar to gang and mafia tricks to get blood on the hands. Since the Searchlight is to be secret, they want no leaks and will use every possible means to paralyze a person.

Searchlighters in the immediate vicinity of an initiatee are given your image and basic information. They are reminded that no direct human contact is to be shared with an initiatee. They are trained and reminded that the only next step for the initiatee is the next sexual conquest. To help a Searchlighter deal with camaraderie and sympathy they will speak faster, harsher, in bigger direct bursts, they will shake their head and laugh a lot.

They will send sexual interests (potential partners toward you) sometimes endlessly (even hundreds of partners a day).

To become free of the persecution the most approved way is to get the fix. Searchlight is a drug and once you get it you will never betray it. Also initiatees will need a sponsor from a Searchlighter.

Acceptance can come without sex if: one, the code is learned enough and the initiatee picks a base class and; two, the approver is convincing enough. Even without the sexual rotation the inductee is still expected to participate with Searchlight culturally (support others rotating) and with propagation.

Initiatee Tips

Don't be afraid to say you're not interested. Touch the lips, the back of the head. Searchlighters, for the most part, will follow their own rules. If you ask (even if you didn't know you asked) they send a sexual proposal your way.

Introductions are a really good idea, even if you don't know a class just pick one to get them off your back. Most guys are eights and touch the neck; most girls are fours and touch the hair. They say how you become free of the persecution is by selecting one. Though people rotate through classes they are generally one class. Eights are the presumptive ones, the cowboys, they care little for law and everything is their playground. Sixes work with the world and have closer relations to women. Sevens work better with their own sex. Fours and fives fall under eight and nines respectively and are well taken care of though the orders an eight and nine sets are expected to be followed quickly without question.

Speak your voice! - quick and decisive, but keep it impersonal. And don't be afraid to tell them no if you have to.

Never say Searchlight(they prefer it if you didn't).

Always keep your cool. If you don't like something, quietly walk away. Searchlighters are often too juiced to realize they've gone to far or even what's right and wrong. Don't let it get in your head! Touch your lip now and then can make a big difference.

Stay on topic and focused. People that are juiced have a hard time thinking about anything else that sex. Chided them slightly when they get off topic. They still have a job and they'll appreciate it.

Don't stare!

Since Searchlighters view learning Searchlight the most imperative thing a person can do, a initiatee should too. If you work a job that has Searchlighter boss, be free to take some time off to re-collect your mind - they are usually more than favorable to do so.

Enforcement

The drive for more sex drives Searchlighters so much they have little need for law anymore and often they find it a hassle. The first and most intimidating threat Searchlight has is they have cameras EVERYWHERE! If you had suspicion you're being watched, you are. The first and most prevalent place for cameras is something that most people watch everyday - the television. Searchlighters have built cameras into tv's. A handler watches your every move so as to know you better, know what type of sexual partners to send you, or intimidate you. There's camera's in most radios too.

Intimidation goes a lot further than that. Because they have camera's in tv's they communicate to each other and communicate very efficiently. A person who has miffed Searchlight could take a simple, short walk to the Post Office and can be intercepted by Searchlighters.

Enforcement by Audacity

Many topics are considered taboo but not to a Searchlighter. Searchlighters use sensitive topics to hide behind. And the bigger the better. Natalie Holloway, Stacy Peterson... Usually the events are more local catastrophes. Searchlighters want you to think there is a global conspiracy going on. Also catastrophes will be made up.

Slander

People that don't join Searchlight are slandered against. With control of cameras and a good portion of the media companies they use these resources in dualistic ways. Searchlighters are even willing to sacrifice integrity and accuracy, and honest reporting to perpetuate the need for Searchlight. The rule of slander is the longer someone denies Searchlight the greater the slander and made-up stories. No one escapes Searchlight.

National Media

Popular people that have become Searchlighted are covered in national media. They begin with stating its a 2 (not true), in Naomi Cambell's case, it was "problems with her Luggage, so she Spit on a Cop". The story is supposed to be the cruel, demeaning, hard to believe... This is ultimately how Searchlight hides things. For Barack Obama it was "Passport Photo's" were looked at illegally in the State Department, for Vladamir Putin it was "Fun Fishing"... They love to be outrageous in these stories. For people that have been difficult to Searchlight worse can happen. The Governor of New York was part of a "Prostitution Ring" and lost his job.

Other popular news stories that revolve around Searchlight: Natilie Holoway, Stacy Peterson, Caesar Laurean.

Drugs

The Searchlight culture is much intertwined with drugs not only are they proficient users of drugs they also use drugs for reduce intimacy, or to increase fear.

Searchlighters are taught how to sneak drugs into food - be careful if you have upset them.

Indoctrination?

Searchlighters are well trained. When a Searchlighter has had many recent sexual encounters he/she is highly suggestive to influence. During such times the Searchlighter is taught principles of detachment, probing into other peoples minds, how to use different drugs to obtain certain effects,... Everything a Searchlighter learns is designed to provide a higher high.

Plus with complete control of radio and television, indoctrination may be happening through these devices.

Drugged Food

Searchlighters are beginning to drug food the produces effects of male and female hormones. I don't know all the details but I can tell they I've had peanut butter that had female hormone in it and corn flakes that had male. Also I had a Tuna Mac that had male hormone. These are off the shelf products too (though generic brands.)

Let People Know

I originally called this piece, "The Ultimate Fix and it's corruption." People that are very involved with Searchlight simple loose the ability to care. With this dependency everything feels good to them and all they really do care about is protecting their culture. People will "Have Fun" but it is these terror plots that I am fighting. If you don't want to be spied on anytime by anyone for any reason. Say something. If you worry about people acting irresponsibly under some type of influence, say something. If you want to be able to trust people, Say Something. Don't fight a war - You'll lose. But battles can be won, and a better, more trusting world can be made.
